50 Shades of Money May 31 2022 Personal finance expert and best selling, award winning author of The ABC's of Personal Finance and 26 Weeks to Wealth and Financial Freedom, Debbi King had once found herself in a heap of debt, a single mom making $10,000 a year. If you too are familiar with that sinking feeling when it comes to your finances that left that single mother in tears on the floor, wondering how she will care for her child, then you have much to gain by taking a page...make that several, from her new book, The 50 Shades of Money. From having over $200,000 in debt, making just $10,000 a year to being debt free and achieving financial freedom, Debbi has been blessed with the opportunity to educate and share her success story with those who know what it's like to live paycheck to paycheck, and has since then coached, motivated and empowered people of all ages and from all different walks of life. Over the course of her career, many have asked her for answers to the same personal finance questions, time and time again. No doubt, you also are itching to know the answers to these questions. This book encompasses everything you need to know, from budgeting to overcoming debt, from buying a car to owning a house and much more, so that you can go from living a stressed financial life to living a life of wealth and financial freedom. In this book, The 50 Shades of Money, Debbi will address all 50 of your frequently asked questions to help you on your journey to self-empowerment as well as financial independence and freedom. Today is the day! The day you decide, just like Debbi did 20 years ago, to change your life and your finances once and for all.

MD in the Black Jan 15 2021 As a resident, finding reliable, relevant, and succinct financial advice can be challenging. That's why we created MD in the Black, a personal finance resource specifically for medical residents. This book answers residents' most pressing financial questions, including: Should I pursue Public Service Loan Forgiveness? Do I really need to buy disability insurance? Should I use extra money to invest or pay back loans? What investments and accounts should I choose? How do I find reliable financial advice? Look inside for answers these questions and more, all free from the bias of industry and the distraction of less relevant content. Creation of this resource was sponsored by the Council of Residency Directors in Emergency Medicine.

50 Shades of Money Nov 05 2022 Personal finance is an area where so many people struggle, but not anymore. 20 years ago, Debbi found herself sitting on the living room floor, with her baby girl, crying because she realized she had $200,000 in debt. And on that day, on her floor, she made a brave decision. She decided no more debt, no more stress, no more living paycheck to paycheck. Debbi went from being a single mom, making $10,000 a year, owing $200,000 to being debt free and reaching financial freedom and so can you. After Debbi got out of debt and began winning the money war, she made it her life goal to empower and educate others to do the exact same thing. Over the last 15 years, she has been asked many of the same questions over and over. This book encompasses her 50 most asked questions and gives very detailed answers on everything from budgeting to getting out of debt, from buying a house to buying a car, from being broke to being wealthy. In this book, you will find the answer to every personal finance question you can imagine. Today is the day! The day you decide, just like Debbi did 20 years ago, to change your life and your finances once and for all.

The Qi of Personal Finance and Investing Jul 21 2021 How do you invest wisely? How do you understand and handle risk when investing? Why does using a financial manager harm your long term investing results? Why does the average investor underperform a straightforward stock index fund? What should you do with your savings? How do you prepare financially for retirement? How do you handle your money in retirement? Why is the basic theory underlying the advice you receive from financial advisors wrong? All of these questions and more are answered in "The Qi of Personal Finance and Investing." In this book I explain why the approach to investing used by your financial advisors and financial managers will harm your long term investing results. My answers to these questions are heretical. I explain why my answers are correct! I have read extensively in finance and investing literature and have spent decades studying, understanding and finally disagreeing with the basic theory underlying the decisions of the financial world. I have reached conclusions regarding personal finance and investing which are distinctly different, i.e. heretical, from the standard advice given by most financial advisors and financial managers. This book details my conclusions and advice to you, the reader.

Dollars and Sense: a Fable of Personal Finance Apr 17 2021 Want to learn about the basics of personal finance in an easy-to-understand manner? In this fable, during some normal days, this family explores many of the financial topics all families, especially children, should understand. It's written in plain, layman's terms with a little bit of humor. There doesn't seem to be anywhere in American society where the basics of personal finance are taught and emphasized over a large part of a person's life, yet we all deal with some part of personal finance every day. Knowledge and experience in this area seem to come through trial and error and perhaps through some self-study and self-exploration. But there isn't a place you get it on a consistent or persistent basis. This book was written using the author's family as protagonists in this "day-in-the-life" fable to first and foremost help teach his kids some basics about personal finance. He has taken personal responsibility to teach his children these insights - for as long and they'll let him. If you find value in this book, please model it then share it with your family, friends and associates.

Green Magazine Mar 17 2021 Straight-up, jargon-free advice on personal finance for those made nauseous by the phrase "personal finance." What the hell's a stock? A bond? A mutual fund? And why do I need to know? Is it better to start investing, or pay off that lingering credit card balance? Should I borrow money to buy a bungalow? A Jaguar? A jalopy? How? What's so great about compound interest anyway? Is the price of this book tax-deductible? The Green Magazine Guide to Personal Finance answers these questions and provides savvy, sensible money advice for anyone who doesn't want to wade through lots of b.s. Ken Kurson, editor of the critically acclaimed Green magazine, demystifies all types of personal financial matters--investing, retirement planning, credit card debt, student loans, first-time home buying, insurance, taxes--as well as providing valuable information on learning to live within your means, dealing with deadbeat roommates or spendthrift boyfriends, and putting on a cheap wedding. Ken Kurson's engaging yet always pragmatic money-speak is enlivened with real-life examples, pie charts, comics, and dead-on humor. His advice doesn't always sound like Dad's, but it's every bit as solid. The Green Magazine Guide is the only book that speaks to all those who are cynical, intimidated, or simply flummoxed about money matters.

Personal Finance for Teens Sep 10 2020 Are you a high school student, soon to be a graduate and heading off to college or to work full time? Or are you a parent looking for a good introduction to personal finance for your son or daughter? Many people wish that they had been given guidance on money matters before they'd finished school. This book answers that need. In "Personal Finance for Teens" Carol H. Cox offers practical advice on how to build a rock-solid financial foundation for life after high school. Now is the time for young adults to get a handle on their finances, before life gets more complicated. Carol covers how to choose, open, and manage a student checking account; network, write resumes, and impress interviewers; control spending and achieve savings goals; build a high-ranking credit score and manage credit cards wisely; assess the cost of car ownership and select an affordable car; evaluate college from a financial perspective; and take advantage of time and start building a retirement account now. This book is a great reference tool for any library and a great graduation present for recent or soon-to-be grads. "Personal Finance for Teens" is the book that every teen should read before leaving home.

Don't Be Stupid About Money Oct 12 2020 Money can make you happy. Or not. It all depends on you. Most money decisions are bad. They're made without critical thinking. Stupid is normal these days when it comes to money. People just keep paying without thinking until the stress wears them out. Wouldn't it be better to Think For Yourself? Stop doing what everyone else does and start making better money decisions. Your money can make you happy if you know how to use it. This is not the same advice you get everywhere else. This is for when you realize all that commonly repeated BS is not what's best for you. It's your money. You don't have to do what everyone else does. Why not Think For Yourself and choose your own course? This book will give you a real world understanding of money. Some people call it "street smart." Whatever you call it, you will make better decisions because reality makes a better foundation. For example; When did qualifying for a mortgage become the guide for buying a house? That's just stupid... read our book and you'll understand the reality. How about budgeting? Expense tracking sounds smart and the apps are easy to write, so you get plenty of advice to do it. But wouldn't you rather budget simply and effectively? That's how you make your life better instead of wasting time. And investing? You don't really think anyone playing at home beats Wall Street, do you? Wall Street is more profitable than ever, for themselves and not for you. If you're playing their game then you are just paying their salaries. Think for Yourself and invest where you get the best real returns. Our books use critical thinking to make life better. And when you think critically about money, you get different answers from the rest of the herd. We Simplify and we keep it fun. Money is just another tool we use to live. Once you understand it, money is just another hammer in the toolbox. Why not spend a couple of hours with us and be wealthier for the rest of your life? You already know that's a good investment. Read now and be smarter with your money forever. HGJ

Today, students need financial knowledge and skills more than ever before, not just to build their own financial security, but to create the new generation of advisers that can help all citizens navigate the complex world of personal finance. Essential Personal Finance is a guide to all the key areas of personal finance: budgeting, managing debt, savings and investments, insurance, securing a home and laying the foundations for retirement. It also provides an introduction to some of the essential foundations of a modern undergraduate finance qualification, including: The nature of financial institutions, markets and economic policy that shape the opportunities and decisions that individuals face. The range of financial assets available to households, the risk-return trade-off, basics of portfolio construction and impact of tax. The importance of the efficient market hypothesis and modern portfolio theory in shaping investment strategies and the limitations of these approaches. Behavioural finance as a key to understanding factors influencing individual and market perceptions and actions. Using financial data to inform investment selection and to create financial management tools that can aid decision-making. A comprehensive companion website accompanies the text to enhance students' learning and includes answers to the end-of-chapter questions. Written by authors who contribute experience as financial advisers, practitioners and academics, Essential Personal Finance examines the motivations, methods and theories that underpin financial decision-making, as well as offering useful tips and guidance on money management and financial planning. The result is a compelling combination of an undergraduate textbook aimed at students on personal finance and financial services courses, and a practical guide for young people in building their own financial strength and capability.

The Charles Schwab Guide to Finances After Fifty Jun 07 2020 Here at last are the hard-to-find answers to the dizzying array of financial questions plaguing those who are age fifty and older. The financial world is more complex than ever, and people are struggling to make sense of it all. If you're like most people moving into the phase of life where protecting—as well as growing-- assets is paramount, you're faced with a number of financial puzzles. Maybe you're struggling to get your kids through college without drawing down your life's savings. Perhaps you sense your nest egg is at risk and want to move into safer investments. Maybe you're contemplating downsizing to a smaller home, but aren't sure of the financial implications. Possibly, medical expenses have become a bigger drain than you expected and you need help assessing options. Perhaps you'll shortly be eligible for social security but want to optimize when and how to take it. Whatever your specific financial issue, one thing is certain—your range of choices is vast. As the financial world becomes increasingly complex, what you need is deeply researched advice from professionals whose credentials are impeccable and who prize clarity and straightforwardness over financial mumbo-jumbo. Carrie Schwab-Pomerantz and the Schwab team have been helping clients tackle their toughest money issues for decades. Through Carrie's popular "Ask Carrie" columns, her leadership of the Charles Schwab Foundation, and her work across party lines through two White House administrations and with the President's Advisory Council on Financial Capability, she has become one of America's most trusted sources for financial advice. Here, Carrie will not only answer all the questions that keep you up at night, she'll provide answers to many questions you haven't considered but should.
