Hormone Balance : How To Reclaim Hormone Balance, Sex Drive, Sleep & Lose Weight Now Apr 17 2021 Hormones are chemicals secreted into the blood from glands, such as the pituitary and adrenal glands. They work as part of a complex network, referred to as the endocrine system. The endocrine and nervous systems work together to form the control systems of the body. A balanced hormonal system is able to correctly govern growth, sleep cycle, mood, immune system, metabolism, hunger, sexual arousal and fertility, among other things. Hormones prepare your body for both immediate and long-term changes. From sending a flight-or-flight signal during an emergency, to initiating the physical changes of puberty or menopause, hormones are the messengers of our chemical communication system. Understanding hormones helps us to identify symptoms of an imbalanced system, and take appropriate actions to address the problem. Grab the book to discover more!

Time Smart Oct 24 2021 There's an 80 percent chance you're poor. Time poor, that is. Four out of five adults report feeling that they have too much to do and not enough time to do it. These time-poor people experience less joy each day. They laugh less. They are less healthy, less productive, and more likely to divorce. In one study, time stress produced a stronger negative effect on happiness than unemployment. How can we escape the time traps that make us feel this way and keep us from living our best lives? Time Smart is your playbook for taking back the time you lose to mindless tasks and unfulfilling chores. Author and Harvard Business School professor Ashley Whillans will give you proven strategies for improving your "time affluence." The techniques Whillans provides will free up seconds, minutes, and hours that, over the long term, become weeks and months that you can reinvest in positive, healthy activities. Time Smart doesn't stop at telling you what to do. It also shows you how to do it, helping you achieve the mindset shift that will make these activities part of your everyday regimen through assessments, checklists, and activities you can use right away. The strategies Whillans presents will help you make the shift to time-smart living and, in the process, build a happier, more fulfilling life.

I Don't Want to Be an Empath Anymore Dec 14 2020 Do you feel all the feels—all the time? Are you fed up with the mainstream spiritual "love and light" scene that calls for constant positivity, even in the face of true loss, trauma, and pain? If so, this book is for you. I Don't Want to Be an Empath Anymore is a gift for the jaded empath searching for authenticity in spirituality, and spirituality in being authentic—something beyond the clichéd, positive affirmations that seem to invalidate our anger, sadness, and pain. When we feel broken—and when real damage has been done, it's not always helpful to ignore our feelings and tell ourselves that we are perfect and whole. In this refreshingly honest guide, shamanic practitioner Ora North offers practical exercises to help you navigate your intuition and empathic sensitivities, create much-needed boundaries, and build confidence. You'll also learn to balance your emotions and energy, and harness the strength of your shadow side to embrace your whole self and live your best life. Like the Japanese craft known as Kintsugi—the art of repairing broken pottery using a lacquer dusted with powdered gold—the process of acknowledging and repairing our fragmented selves can make us even more beautiful than before, cracks and all. In this book, you won't find platitudes or attempts to whitewash your experiences. What you will find are real, practical tools and guidance to help you make the most of your unique abilities.

The Gentrification of the Internet Dec 02 2019 How we lost control of the internet—and how to win it back. The internet has become a battleground. Although it was unlikely to live up to the hype and hopes of the 1990s, only the most skeptical cynics could have predicted the World Wide Web as we know it today: commercial, isolating, and full of, even fueled by, bias. This was not inevitable. The Gentrification of the Internet argues that much like our cities, the internet has become gentrified, dominated by the interests of business and capital rather than the interests of the people who use it. Jessa Lingel uses the politics and debates of gentrification to diagnose the massive, systemic problems blighting our contemporary internet: erosions of privacy and individual ownership, small businesses wiped out by wealthy corporations, the ubiquitous paywall. But there are still steps we can take to reclaim the heady possibilities of the early internet. Lingel outlines actions that internet activists and everyday users can take to defend and secure more protections for the individual and to carve out more spaces of freedom for the people—not businesses—online.

The Maybe Universe Nov 24 2021 Modern science has placed before us a vast and ancient universe, one said to contain a billion trillion stars clustered in a hundred billion galaxies and to be thirteen billion years old. Our earthly home, we are told, is a tiny chunk of matter randomly formed, revolving around a mediocre star in the outlying reaches of an unspectacular galaxy. Life on earth developed by chance. We are the end result of a series of accidents. This scientific Story of Creation, though finely detailed, isn't based on cold, hard fact. Scientists proclaim, without a shred of proof, that the laws of nature remain constant through both time and space. Upon this rock they build their world. This scientific premise cannot be proved. It must be taken on faith. This book dismisses the scientific premise and explains the universe based on an equally unprovable premise: That we are created in the image of our creator, and create the material world in our image. It then sets out to prove that the universe is not a vast ancient place ruled by chance but rather exists as a reflection, or shadow, or mirror image of us.

How To Reclaim Your Energy Jan 03 2020 How to Reclaim Your Energy teaches a new method by experienced Energist, Spiritual Teacher, Oracle and Channel, Kirsten Ivatts. The method came as a download of information that Kirsten has used many times since, on herself and with others. Use it on relationships, events, concepts (such as love and money), places and many other things, with great results. Many people know about cutting cords to sever a connection that is having a negative impact. Kirsten explains why this is not a great idea, and instead offers a far better solution. Reclaiming your energy is simple, quick and provides understanding, Aha moments and compassion. It provides an awareness of all the places you leave your energy behind, and the problems this is causing. The book offers exercises to help you learn, plus ideas of where you may need to reclaim your energy from.

How to Reclaim your Power Aug 22 2021 In our modern and fast moving world and lives, more and more people are being left behind in the race for physical riches (by those that have more than they can spend in this lifetime), and thus live in conditions which are generally described as being poor or even below the poverty line, and because of their longing for some luxuries and often bare necessities, the poorer people become trapped into the credit-card and loan systems on offer, borrowing and buying often beyond their means enticed too by the many advertisements in the printed media and on TV, telling them they can have everything they want now and pay for it later by borrowing up to the limits, or against the equity of their homes, often for goods or services they do not really need or want. Others again take out mortgages to buy expensive homes beyond their means or ability to repay the often over valued and priced homes. At times also through their sheer ignorance people are unaware of the consequences of their often impulsive actions and motives. The reason for this in many cases is: "they are so involved in running their lives, trying to make ends meet that they have no time to look outside the proverbial square!" Others again become involved in activities such as compulsive gambling, drinking and smoking, which consume a large proportion of their disposable income. In our modern world it is also becoming more evident through the almost daily exposure of corrupt officials, crooked trades people, unethical businesses, industries and service providers, that honesty and ethics seem to have disappeared and have been replaced by the terminology, me, me, me and profit, profit, profit at any cost. People have to become more and more vigilant and aware of what is going on around them and protect them-selves by whatever means available to them from the impact these outside influences have on their finances, lives, families and relationships. Consequently, many when realizing what is happening try to turn their lives around, to break out of this vicious cycle of monetary enslavement, but due to the circumstances they find themselves in, very few actually can see a way out of their misery or manage to do something about it. Many in their despair seek outside help by attending seminars and workshop that promise them they will change their lives and circumstances and more often than not, pay enormous amounts of money to secure a seat at these sessions, and when one listens to some of the talk, it sounds quite logical and believable, but does it work? During the session people get all fired up heading for home to turn into practice what they have learned, only to find that after a few weeks their situations and conditions have not changed, leaving them with a feeling of disappointment and helplessness about their situation. The facts are, nothing will change unless, "people themselves make a personal effort, commit them-selves too and have the desire to make the changes and to see them through!" A favored saying which is often used is, that you must believe you already have what you desire otherwise it cannot come into your life. But how can you believe in something you know, and through your eyes you can see it not to be true, because in the process of co-creation, your mind is playing a very important part, and when you can only see the opposite around you day after day and when whatever you try does not work, how can you believe you already have what you want or desire? Consequently, when this happens, people become disillusioned and start to believe that they have no power over what happens in their lives and many even stop trying altogether. The contents of the book are based on events, situations and conditions which actually occurred in the author's life, and are happening to the average working families in Australia and world wide on a daily basis in their lives. Through observations made, media reports and personal situations encountered, Hans descri

How to Reclaim Your Innocence Aug 02 2022 "I believe that this book was Divinely channeled so that those who are about to give up on love open their hearts one more time and experience the pure joy of giving love with no other agenda; those who are about to give up on their brothers and sisters open their eyes one more time and see the spark of good that is in everyone; and those who are about to give up on God look for the grace one more time and find that just on the other side of the darkness, the light is waiting to embrace them. Thank you Temba for being such an open vessel for God to work through." -Debra Poneman, founder and president Yes to Success, Inc., bestselling author of Chicken Soup for the American Idol Soul "Temba brilliantly and compellingly reminds us of the true power we had as children. He takes us on a journey into the heart, where we reconnect with our child-like innocence and our loving essence." Marci Shimoff, #1 NY Times bestselling author of Love for No Reason and Happy for No Reason "Temba Spirit reminds all of us in his deeply moving book, How to Reclaim Your Innocence: Remembering the Love-Beauty Within, that none of us exist in isolation - that each of us are intimately connected to one another, and that with that connection there is an unspoken responsibility to take our life's lessons, no matter how dark or how painful, and transform them into the gift that they are meant to be. Congratulations Temba! You have gone deep into the recesses of your own soul to remind us that we live in a benevolent universe. That everything is always working 'for us' not 'against us.' Through your transparency you have reminded us again that the greatest power in the universe lies within our own heart and when we decide to be the love that we are, anything is possible." -Janet Bray Attwood - New York Times Bestseller - Co/author of The Passion Test - The Effortless Path to Discovering Your Life Purpose "A powerful and poignant message - deep and timely. In How To Reclaim Your Innocence: Remembering The Love Beauty Within, Temba Spirit shares the importance of honoring and loving ourselves as well as those around us every day. He captures the essence of our gentle spirits when we are born and the crucial need to continue to live in this type of love consistently. When we examine and share love, like Temba shows us how to do here, we actively create abundance for ourselves and those around us." Shajen Joy Aziz, M.Ed. Co-author of Discover The Gift It's Why We're Here "Temba Spirit graces us with a vital reminder of that place within us that has never been nor can ever be hurt, harmed, or endangered-the perpetual innocence of our inner spirit. He adds the good news that it is just as accessible to us today through the spiritual practices of meditation, introspection, compassion, and unconditional love as it was when we were children." -Michael Bernard Beckwith, author of Life Visioning "Temba gives voice to every soul that has been victimized by life's circumstances, and truly models a courage to move beyond that victim consciousness into the true empowerment that can only come from a willingness to forgive. He inspires each of us to honor the bullet of mistrust lodged in our own heart and to build our own platform of compassion needed to find our way back to the child within us who holds our faith, hope, love and trust." Cathryn Taylor, MA, MFT, LADC Author of the best selling Inner Child Workbook

It's Now Or Never May 07 2020 Not since the Revolution has our nation faced greater challenges or more potential for total collapse. America is hanging by a thread. Politics have failed; government policies are disastrous; corruption abounds; the dollar is fading; courts are abandoning the Constitution; morality has been lost ... and the majority of citizens are dreadfully silent. The light from "the city on a hill" has grown dim. The question is, "Will it go out?" One thing is certain: now is the time for action! America originated from an ideal unlike anything previous, consisting of "We the people" and the foundation of "under God." Tragically, the Founders' vision has become unrecognizable today. Hence, under God, we the people have a sacred responsibility to be good citizens - involved in preserving the moral and political purity of our republic. In fact, our system of government does not work without involvement from the people, so to be disengaged at this critical hour must be considered un-American and unacceptable. Another "revolution" is desperately needed if America is to be salvaged, and the sacrificial commitment of our forefathers will be required. Today the enemy is not the British; we are the problem ... but we are also the solution! It's Now or Never provides a path for reclaiming America. By clearly identifying the key issues that are destroying our nation's core, this book sets forth essential steps each citizen can take to help regain our country and become a part of the solution. The light of America can shine again. Your role is vital, but you must act quickly it's now or never!

Beating Endo Apr 29 2022 From two of the world's leading experts in endometriosis comes an essential, first-of-its kind book that unwraps the mystery of the disease and gives women the tools they need to reclaim their lives from it. Approximately one out of every 10 women has endometriosis, an inflammatory disease that causes chronic pain, limits life's activities, and may lead to infertility. Despite the disease's prevalence, the average woman may suffer for a decade or more before receiving an accurate diagnosis. Once she does, she's often given little more than a prescription for pain killers and a referral for the wrong kind of surgery. Beating Endo arms women with what has long been missing—even within the medical community—namely, cutting-edge knowledge of how the disease works and what the endo sufferer can do to take charge of her fight against it. Leading gynecologist and endometriosis specialist Dr. Iris Kerin Orbuch and world-renowned pelvic pain specialist and physical therapist Dr. Amy Stein have long partnered with each other and with other healthcare practitioners to address the disease's host of co-existing conditions—which can include pelvic floor muscle dysfunction, gastrointestinal ailments, painful bladder syndrome, central nervous system sensitization--through a whole-mind/whole-body approach. Now, Beating Endo formalizes the multimodal program they developed, offering readers an anti-inflammatory lifestyle protocol that incorporates physical therapy, nutrition, mindfulness, and environment to systematically address each of the disease's co-conditions on an ongoing basis up to and following excision surgery. This is the program that has achieved successful outcomes for their patients; it is the program that works to restore health, vitality, and quality of life to women with endo. No more "misdiagnosis roulette" and no more limits on women's lives: Beating Endo puts the tools of renewed health in the hands of those whose health is at risk.

Too Fast to Think May 19 2021 Our lives are getting faster and faster. We are engulfed in constant distraction from email, social media and our 'always on' work culture. We are too busy, too overloaded with information and too focused on analytical left-brain thinking processes to be creative. Too Fast to Think exposes how our current work practices, media culture and education systems are detrimental to innovation. The speed and noise of modern life is undermining the clarity and quiet that is essential to power individual thought. Our best ideas are often generated when we are free to think diffusely, in an uninterrupted environment, which is why moments of inspiration so often occur in places completely separate to our offices. To reclaim creativity, Too Fast to Think teaches you how to retrain your brain into allowing creative ideas to emerge, before they are shut down by interruption, distraction or the self-doubt of your over-rational brain. This is essential reading for anyone who wants to maximize their creative potential, as well as that of their team. Supported by cutting-edge research from the University of the Arts London and insightful interviews with business leaders, academics, artists, politicians and psychologists, Chris Lewis takes a holistic approach to explain the 8 crucial traits that are inherently linked to creation and innovation.

More Money, More Time Sep 03 2022 All aboard for the Easy Life as Elizabeth Dawson, professional organizer and cultural iconoclast, takes you on a context-shifting tour through the rooms of your house, the pages of your checkbook and the minutes that make up your day. By way of anecdotes, comical metaphors and her searing, myth-busting practicality, Ms. Dawson reveals irresistibly simple steps to unraveling the rampant overspending, over scheduling and clutter that constitutes Life in the Fast Lane. Along the way, Ms. Dawson reveals the connection between an excess of possessions and a lack of time and money, encourages readers to reinvent Christmas and illuminates the value of cooking at home as an act of family bonding. Ultimately, she demonstrates that a rested, fulfilled woman has a potentially positive impact on her family—an idea that is obvious and, therefore, overlooked. Women interested in making space in their lives to fulfill their personal dreams will find More Money, More Time a vigorously inspiring teacher.

Mommy Burnout May 31 2022 The ultimate must-read handbook for the modern mother: a practical, and positive tool to help free women from the debilitating notion of being the "perfect mom," filled with funny and all too relatable true-life stories and realistic suggestions to stop the burnout cycle, and protect our kids from the damage burnout can cause. Moms, do you feel tired? Overwhelmed? Have you continually put off the things you need to do for you? Do you feel like it's all worth it because your kids are happy? Are you "over" being a mother? If you answered yes to these questions, you're not alone. Parents today want to create the ideal childhood for their children. Women strive to be the picture-perfect Pinterest mother that looks amazing, hosts the best birthday parties in town, posts the most "liked" photos, and serves delicious, nutritious home-cooked meals in her neat, organized home after ferrying the kids to school and a host of extracurricular activities on time. This drive, while noble, can also be destructive, causing stress and anxiety that leads to "mommy burnout." Psychologist and family counselor Dr. Sheryl Ziegler is well-versed in the stress that moms face, and the burden of guilt they carry because they often feel like they aren't doing enough for their kids' happiness. A mother of three herself, Dr. Z—as she's affectionately known by her many patients—recognizes and understands that modern moms are all too often plagued by exhaustion, failure, isolation, self-doubt, and a general lack of self-love, and their families are also feeling the effects, too. Over the last nineteen years working with families and children, Dr. Z has devised a prescriptive program for addressing "mommy burnout"—teaching moms that they can learn to re-energize themselves and still feel good about their families and their lives. In this warm and empathetic guide, she examines this modern epidemic among mothers who put their children's happiness above their own, and offers empowering, proven solutions for alleviating this condition, saving marriages and keeping kids happy in the process.

THE IMPOTENT GIANT Mar 17 2021 The Impotent Giant has nothing to do with being a Democrat or Republican. It has everything to do with what it means to be an American. Alarmed about who and what the United States of America represents, author Dr. H. John Lyke articulates how citizens can help to regain the moral and political leadership. Using psychological principles, he provides a discussion of why our country is in the fix it's in and how to return it to its former greatness. Dr. Lyke's research on the issues began with a re-examination of the lives of outstanding leaders, especially George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, two men who led the United States toward the attainment of American ideals. Studying the principles, courage, and actions of these men offers a model for effective leadership and rekindles one's pride in being an American, a pride that for many has shrunk drastically during the past ten years. The Impotent Giant examines where the country stands among other nations and how the citizens of the United States and those of the rest of the world perceive its leaders. It encourages citizens to elect the right leaders, discuss the right issues, and act for the right reasons.

Time Smart Sep 30 2019 There's an 80% chance you're poor. Time poor, that is. Four out of five adults report feeling they are time-poor: They have too much to do and not enough time to do it. And the consequences are severe. The time-poor experience less joy each day. They laugh less. They are less healthy, less productive, and more likely to divorce. In one study of 2.5 million Americans, time stress produced a stronger negative effect on happiness than unemployment. How can we escape the time traps that make us feel this way and keep us from living our best lives? Time Smart is your playbook for taking back the time you lose to mindless tasks and unfulfilling chores. Author and Harvard Business School professor Ashley Whillans will give you proven strategies for improving your "time affluence." Sometimes you can find time lost to thoughtless activity--like mindlessly checking your phone. Sometimes you can find time by buying your way out of time-consuming, unrewarding tasks--for instance, by paying for a ride to work. The techniques Whillans provides will free up seconds, minutes, and hours that, over the long term, become weeks of freed up time you can reinvest in positive, healthy activities. Time Smart doesn't stop at telling you what to do. It also shows you how to do it, helping you achieve the mind-set shift that will make these activities part of your everyday regimen. At every step, Time Smart provides assessments, checklists, and activities you can use right away. Before you've finished reading chapter 1, you'll be accounting for your time and thinking about ways to change. Whillans knows what works. A leading voice in time and happiness research, she's worked with groups as diverse as large consulting firms, couples, the US military, and women with limited means managing vegetable stands in Kenya. The strategies she presents are proven through research and brought to life by the stories of people making the shift--or trying to make the shift--in order to create happier, more fulfilling lives.
